

Class Two

Aspect: Preparing Fruit and Vegetables
Product: Design, make and evaluate a soup for Freddie (the boy) to keep him warm/provide him with energy for his icy boat journey.
Designer: Delia Smith

Aspect: Textiles – templates and joining
Product: Design, make and evaluate a finger puppet to use themselves to role play the characters in the book 'The Lion Inside'.
Designer: Jim Henson (The Muppets)

Aspect: Free Standing Structures
Product: Design, make and evaluate a slide for other children to use in Frodsham park.
Designer: Dame Zaha Hadid (Iraqi-Born British Architect)
Visit to Danny Boat and Frodsham/Frodsham Park

Aspect: Healthy and varied diet
Product: Design, make and evaluate a snack bar for a local shop to sell.
Designer: Simon Rimmer

Aspect: Shell structures with CAD
Product: Design, make and evaluate a recyclable lunch box for themselves for carrying a packed lunch on their residential.
Designer: Alessi

Aspect: 2D Shapes to 3D products
Product: Design, make and evaluate a purse for a Viking for protecting their sacred runes.
Designer: Vivian Westwood
Visit from Junior Embroidery Guild

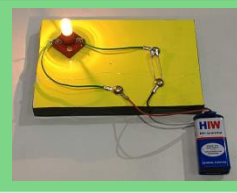

Class Three

Class Four

Aspect: Celebrating culture and seasonality
Product: Design, make and evaluate a bread for themselves for accompanying a Maya meal.
Designer: Paul Hollywood
<https://www.paulhollywood.com>
Visit from Roberts Bakery

Aspect: Mechanical systems pulleys
Product: Design, make and evaluate a Fairground Ride for young children that can be used for programming with their Computing unit.
Designer: Mary Anderson

Aspect: Textiles Combining different fabric shapes
Product: Design, make and evaluate a bag for a class mate for carrying their swimming kit.
Designer: Matthew Williamson

